UPDATED	Bishop Brian’s Flood Relief Appeal My prayers and thoughts are with you all as this “never ending rain” continues to cause so much damage and distress in our communities. In a heartfelt video message to his flock in early March, Greg Homeming OCD, Bishop of Lismore, said it had been “a very tragic few days”. To those who had “lost everything” in these floods, Bishop Greg said that everyone across the diocese was suffering with them. “This has all happened at a time when we were hoping that 2022 would be a year of hope, a good year,” he said. As a diocese, I would like to provide practical support for the people of Lismore. I also want to provide pastoral and practical support for the people in our own diocese who have been and will continue to be impacted by these floods. I invite you to join me in prayer for these people, and to donate to my Flood Relief Appeal https://www.dow.org.au/giving/ , so that with your support, we can meet this goal. +BM
Continuing	Holy Land Collection The annual Holy Land Collection will be held on Good Friday, 15 April 2022. Pope Francis has asked our parishes to support the collection which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, orphanages, and medical centres. The Holy Land Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. To find out more, or to make an on-line donation please visit dow.sh/HolyLand

Updated	The XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops Thanks to all individuals and groups who contributed submissions to the to the National Centre for Pastoral Research (NCPDR). The Diocese recently received a collated report on all DoW submissions from the NCPDR. A writing advisory team of 12 persons from around the Diocese, including three members of the Clergy, gathered on Tuesday 5 April, to provide their insights on the feedback provided, also utilising Plenary 2020 feedback and National Church Life Survey data. The advice gleaned from the discernment, discussion and writing from this day, will be used to compile Bishop Mascord’s submission to the ACBC, which in turn will contribute to the submission of the Australian Church to the Synod. Please pray for this ongoing process of prayer and discernment for the XVI Ordinary Synod.
