NEW	A vocation view “Who do you say that I am?” We confess with Peter that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God. (Matthew 16:13-20) NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK National Vocations Awareness Week reminded us (August 6th – 13) reminded us that we are all called to be saints, which is to say that we are called through our baptism to follow Jesus in his way of love. This universal call then manifests uniquely in God’s plan for each one of us. In the words of Pope Francis: “Our common vocation to give ourselves in love develops and finds concrete expression in the life of lay men and women, devoted to raising a family as a small domestic church and working as a leaven of the Gospel to renew the different sectors of society; in the testimony of consecrated women and men who are completely committed to God for the sake of their brothers and sisters as a prophetic sign of the kingdom of God; in ordained ministers – deacons, priests and bishops – placed at the service of preaching, prayer and fostering the communion of the holy People of God...The Church is a vocational “symphony”, with every vocation united yet distinct, in harmony and joined together in “going forth” to radiate throughout the world the new life of the kingdom of God” (Message for 2023 World Day of Prayer for Vocations). For help discerning your specific vocational path, contact Fr Duane Fernandez, Vocations Director, at vocations@dow.org.au – he would love to hear from you!
