Comments from previous course participants

The course is invaluable for personal growth and in developing and learning skills for pastoral care. It was an enriching experience and it deepened my self-awareness.

In every session, I discovered something valuable that enriched me as a person and in the realm of Pastoral care. I believe that by the end of the course, my listening skills and self-awareness improved significantly.

The group dynamics within the CPE cohort was positive and collaborative. Sharing experiences and insights with fellow students enhanced my learning and provided a sense of community in our shared pursuit of effective pastoral care.
